

Saints Peter and Paul worked tirelessly to spread the Gospel. Not all can be apostles, but we, too, must be good stewards of our vocations, using the gifts we have been given in the service of God's kingdom.

Everyone is welcome and encouraged to attend and celebrate the freedom of religion that we enjoy in this country and which is under attack by those who want to ignore the first amendment of the Constitution.

2) Bishop Walkowiak paid a visit to our area last Monday. I had invited him to see how they pack apples. By the time he called back they were done packing apples but were still packing asparagus. So we went to Dietrich's packing house by Kent City and observed the process. Quite fascinating, if I do say so myself. He asked a ton of questions and was obviously very interested. We took a picture of him and the Dietrich's and others who work there. Joe and Kathy Dietrich were celebrating their 30th wedding anniversary that day so he brought up on his smart phone a little ceremony of renewing vows and a blessing (I better put one of those on my phone!). Very nice. He was very grateful for the invitation and clearly enjoyed himself.

3) The roof on St. Catherine's Church is coming along nicely. When they are finished, we will try to coordinate fixing the water damage inside the church (ceiling, walls, etc.) with some of the upgrades to the lighting in church to save costs on erecting scaffolding.

4) St. Francis Xavier's Hall is coming along also very nicely. The walls are painted. This past week, volunteers were to get the old folding walls out and start taking up the old carpet (saving us about $600.00). The carpet should be laid soon and we can resume using our hall. THANKS to all those volunteers who are putting significant time and effort into this project.

5) St. Joseph's Research Committee will begin work on various things that need to be considered if we build a new Activities Center. Part of their work will be to invite input from stakeholders in the project: school, religious education, ladies who put on meals, groups that meet, music ministry, etc., etc. Another part is how to fund this new building and its long term maintenance. Another part of the project is remodeling the present hall (church basement) into parish office space for pastor, secretary, business manager, DRE, music director, etc. It has also been suggested that we include space for a nursery during weekend Masses. Finally, also included is eventual demolition of the former convent which is where the parish offices are currently located. Lots to do. Lots of planning. I'm sure there will be lots of comments. Constructive criticism is always welcome. Just keep it polite, please.

Enjoy the summer. I love you.

CENTERING PRAYER – Chapel at St. Catherine Church, following Thursday's Mass.

Centering Prayer – Contemplative Prayer

During Centering Prayer thoughts are coming and going. We let thoughts go by using our sacred word. Some periods of Centering Prayer are more peaceful and some have persistent thoughts. Please keep in mind that the method of Centering Prayer is only one form of prayer and doesn't exclude other forms of prayer at other times. We should communicate with God on every level of our being; with our lips, our bodies, our imaginations, our emotions, our minds, and our silence. Centering Prayer is only one rung of Jacob's ladder in the Old Testament. It is a way of giving God a chance to speak to us. While our spontaneous chats with God are good, there is a level that is even better. As in human friendship, there is a conversational level. But as friendship grows more intimate, the level of communication develops, where the two can sit together and say nothing. If they say nothing, does that mean that they are not finding deep enjoyment in the relationship? There are obviously different ways and different levels of expressing one's relationship with another person and with God. God clearly deals with us in a personal way. Centering Prayer adds a dimension to one's relationship with God that is more intimate than the other levels. There is nothing wrong with vocal prayer, but it isn't the only way or the most profound way of praying. Centering Prayer helps us to let go and let God. We become more relaxed, forgiving, and loving in everyday life.

MARS (Missions Around Ravenna in Service)- Update on MARS. This Mission has been very active this past year, and we are appealing to you again this year for your help in filling our food pantry with non-perishable food items and/or monetary donations(which are used to purchase the fresh foods). We have provided envelopes in church pews for this purpose, and a tub to place the food items in back of church. If you have any questions concerning MARS please contact any of these St. Catherine's representatives: Emma Mikos, Karen Goodno, or Mary Arends. THANK YOU for your generosity in the past year, and we hope for another year of many donations to help those in need in the Ravenna Community. #847, "Song of the Body of Christ", in our "gather" hymnal reads: "we are called to feed the hungry at our door". Thank you.

To the Parishioners of our Cluster of Parishes,

Dick and I would like to thank the many members of the parishes who have kept us in prayer during the past year, but most especially in the past two months as Dick received a liver transplant at the University of Michigan on April 24, 2014. Currently, Dick is progressing very well and has returned to his position as Director of Music at Holy Family Parish, Sparta. God's will, your prayers and the knowledge and expertise of the physicians at the University of Michigan and our primary care physician, Dr. Kevin Kiley have made all of this possible. We are most grateful to all of you for your fervent prayer and will continue to be grateful for any prayers that you might like to offer on our behalf. Most sincerely and with grateful hearts, Dick and Eileen Hoogterp

The Knights of Columbus #4404 is sponsoring a Blood Drive on Monday, July 07th at St. Joseph's Church. The Blood Drive will take place from 1:00 to 7:00 pm. Please help and give the gift of life.

FAMILY PERSPECTIVE by Bud Ozar

In today's Gospel, we are posed with the question by Jesus, "who do you say I am?" Our families are our first 'rock' where we learn who we are because we proclaim who Jesus is for us – the Christ, the Son of the living God.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time July 06, 2014

Reading I Zechariah 9:9-10 (restoration under the Messiah)
Reading II Romans 8:9, 11-13 (indwelling of the Spirit)
Gospel Matthew 11:25-30 (Jesus and his Father)

Key Passage Jesus said, "Come to me, all you that are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me; for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls." (Matthew 11:28-29)

Adult: When has Jesus refreshed you when you felt burdened by problems?

Child: What burden do you need Jesus to help you carry?

PARABLES ON FIRE 086-100: Presenter: Joachim Lally, CSP Day/Date/Time: Tuesday, July 8; 7:00-9:00 p.m. Mark 4:34 states that Jesus in his public ministry only taught using stories, or parables. How may these parables be applied to the issues we face today in our church and our world? Cost: $20.00. CFD: Theology.
