A religious painting of Jesus Christ with a lamb. Jesus is depicted with long, wavy brown hair and a beard, wearing a white robe. He is looking down at a white lamb he is holding in his arms. The background is a soft, golden light with faint outlines of hills.

From Deacon Ed's Corner

How often are we identified with a number? At the bank we have account numbers, PIN numbers to access our debit and credit cards. The IRS identifies us by our social security number. When we enquire about our electric or phone bill the first thing we are asked is, "What is your customer number?" When you go to the deli counter we take a number and will be served when our number is called. If you are pulled over by a police officer for speeding, their interest is also in numbers – your license number, your registration number, and the number on the radar gun indicating how fast you were travelling. We could go on and on. Being identified by a number is so impersonal, isn't it. It is so much nicer when someone knows our name. When we are remembered by our name rather than by a customer account number.

In John's Gospel we hear Jesus speak words that give us that kind of warm feeling that we have when someone cares for us, is interested in what is happening in our lives, empathizes and encourages us. Jesus tells us about the very personal and intimate relationship that he has with us. He says, "I am the good shepherd. As the Father knows me and I know the Father, in the same way I know my sheep and they know me".

Jesus uses this portrayal of the relationship between a shepherd and his sheep to describe the closeness that he and the Father share. This is easier to understand because it is something that comes from the everyday life in Jesus' time where everyone knew about the close relationship of the shepherds and their sheep. He says, "My sheep know my voice, and I know them. They follow me, and I give them eternal life, so that they will never be lost. No one can snatch them out of my hand. My Father gave them to me, and he is greater than all others. No one can snatch them from his hands, and I am one with the Father"

Perhaps this analogy of shepherd and sheep means less to us today since we do not live close to the flocks. Our thoughts of sheep are only when we're wearing a wool sweater or buying lamb chops. But, it comes down to this; The sheep depend on the shepherd. They gladly follow him as they know he can be trusted because he lives among them. He sleeps among them, walks with them, feeds them, guides, directs and protects them, and knows each by name. All this builds up to an image of someone with an intense love for our total well-being at every turn of our life. Jesus takes care of his own. We belong to him. Even if like sheep, we are often not very bright, not very quick, not very perceptive. Jesus as the Good Shepherd will always protect us, provide for us and always be present to us even when the world wants to do its best to snatch us away from Him. This portrait of Jesus tells us how he feels about each one of us. Big business thinks of us just as a number. Jesus knows us each by name!

I hope that all of you are still basking in Easter Joy. Peace and Blessings!

Thank you to all those who contributed or attempted to contribute blood this past Monday the 19th. Your efforts are greatly appreciated by those whose lives have been saved by your generosity!

Knights of Columbus

A note from a Parishioner

I am a 63 year Knights of Columbus member and am 81 years old. I had always donated blood for years until I was no longer able to due to medication and medical changes.

In November of 2019, my doctors told me I needed my first blood transfusion while trying to diagnosed my condition. In January of 2020 it was discovered I had a form of Lukemia, which means my red & white blood cells were not producing enough blood on their own. I was put on an injection of 60,000 units of Epogen Procrit injections weekly, to help me to produce more blood.

I needed a blood transfusion every five weeks when this began, today I need one every three weeks.

It takes three people giving blood every 2 months to supply enough blood just for myself.

At the Cancer Hematology where I go they average approximately 10 transfusions for people with health conditions, similar to mine.

God Bless!
Ben Looks

Fifth Sunday of Easter Strengthening your faith May 2, 2021

Reading I: Acts 9:26–31 (Saul visits Jerusalem)
Reading II: 1 John 3:18–24 (the actions of believers)
Gospel: John 15:1–8 (the vine and the branches)
Key Passage: [The vine grower] removes every branch in me that bears no fruit. Every branch that bears fruit he prunes to make it bear more fruit. (John 15:2)

Question of the Week

Adult: When have you been "pruned" by your experiences in a way that led to greater abundance?
Child: When have you felt stronger or better because you did something hard to help another person?

Rosary Intention for April:

Let us pray for those who risk their lives while fighting for fundamental rights of all God's people under dictatorships, authoritarian regimes and even in democracies in crisis. We continue to pray for an end to the pandemic, for those who are ill, for the dead, their families and friends, the nurses and doctors, and all those that have put themselves in harms way to continue providing us with our essential needs.

Fourth Sunday of Easter Family Perspective by Bud Ozar April 25, 2021

Today's gospel is a job description for Christian parents. For most people the most influential shepherds in their lives are their PARENTS. Every parent is called to be a "good shepherd" to "freely lay down their life" for their children, to "love" and "know" their children and to "lead" them so "they know your voice."

If you haven't sent in your pledge, please do so.

Thank you for your generosity!
All pledges that go over our goal are returned to the Cluster Parishes.

Also, if you are currently a chairperson or if you have volunteered to help with Festival in the past, we thank you!! If you have not been involved and would like to help, we have PLENTY of room for you! To volunteer please contact Festival Chairs - Mike Host (616.293.8894) or Chris Host (616.293.8893). Thank you!

From the Bishop The Our Shepherds - Our Future

Capital Campaign will support two initiatives that received solid support from laity and clergy from a feasibility study undertaken in our diocese: Seminarian Education and Clergy Retirement.

"I am confident that by working together, clergy and laity alike, we can lead our diocese into the future by addressing these initiatives now. I ask you to join me in prayer and generosity as we embark on this historic and transformational journey as one Church."

Our Cluster of Catholic Churches is part of the third segment of the campaign. This start was postponed from last year because of the pandemic. Look for further information in the coming weeks. More information is available on the Diocesan web page: grdiocese.org/diocese/our-shepherds-our-future/.
